NOPE, THE COAL BIN DOOR didn't fly open; it's an overturned coal truck on Route 13 at Buena Vista yesterday. Surveying the spilled mess is William Yandell of Ozark, the driver, after the vehicle struck a soft shoulder across from South Willford school and overturned. Yandell was not hurt and the truck, belonging to Clarence Riddle, sustained very slight damage. Yandell was hauling coal from near Crab Orchard to the Harrisburg Coal Co. ramp and was only a short distance from his destination. He said he hit the shoulder when a car in front of him started to make a turn. (Daily Register-Staff Photo)

Woman Gives Her Viewpoint on Development

TIMMO RECEIVED a fine letter through the U. S. mails Saturday and it gives a woman's viewpoint on community development and attracting industry.

It was written by Mrs. Walter Allen of 1218 South Land street and let's read it in its entirety:

Dear Tim:
As a housewife and mother I, like a lot of other individuals, am concerned about the economic situation of our community. I wish the Saline Valley Development Association every kind of success in its endeavors. Everyone of us should be willing to help in every way we can.

First let me say that this is just one person's opinion and you can take it for what it's worth. It seems to me that we are starting in the middle of a project instead of at the bottom. In building anything I've always thought a sound foundation was the important thing. So, in my opinion, before we can sell ourselves and our community to others, we must use that salesmanship on ourselves.

Instead of that negative attitude of "it can't be done," and "it won't be done," we must say and make ourselves believe "it can be done" and "it will be done."

The best place to start bringing about this change of attitude is with the women. Give the woman something she can believe in, make it important enough to compensate her efforts and she will dig in and get the work started.

But first you must make the woman believe that what she is doing is important to her as an individual. That wouldn't be difficult as most women already know that when they do anything to better the community they have improved their own family. For whatever affects a community affects us all. WE ARE THE COMMUNITY.

IT WOULD BE a safe prediction to say that three-fourths of the female population of this community belong to one or more organizations. So the obvious way to

Frigid Weather Extends Into Northern Florida

Ice, Snow Close Schools in Virginia, N. Carolina, Tennessee

By United Press

Frigid weather gripped the eastern half of the nation today, hitting northern Florida with another bout of freezing temperatures.

Snow flurries persisted in the Northeast and extended south to the mountains of North Carolina.

Icy and snow-packed roads forced the closing of schools Monday in Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia and Tennessee.

Heavy snows blocked some roads in the Tennessee Smokies and the North Carolina mountains. Four-foot drifts choked streets in Boone, N. C.

Near and below zero readings chilled northern New England and portions of Wisconsin and Illinois during the night.

Overnight temperatures plunged into the teens as far south as North Carolina and to below freezing throughout most of northern Florida. Freezing temperatures also hit Alabama and Georgia.

Scattered snow flurries swirled across the Great Lakes and the East during the night, with the heaviest accumulation of about two inches in western New York state.

Wind gusts up to 40 miles an hour whipped up clouds of snow in portions of Pennsylvania and northern New York, and winds of more than 60 miles per hour blasted Roanoke, Va.

A warning trend overspread the nation's customary "ice box," the Plains States and Upper Mississippi Valley, early today, boosting temperatures by an average of 15 to 20 degrees in the eastern Dakotas and Minnesota.

Other readings ranged from the 30s in southern Montana to the 40s in parts of Washington and Oregon and near 60 in southern California and Arizona.

Forecasters predicted continued cold in the East today with snow flurries in the lower Great Lakes, northern New England and the mountains of North Carolina. Fair skies were expected in most of the southeastern portion of the country.

Name 28 Civic, Business Leaders To SIU Area Development Board

Will Counsel In Regional Assistance Plans

CARBONDALE, Ill. — An advisory board of 28 leading civic and business leaders has been named to counsel Southern Illinois University's department of community development in regional assistance programs.

The department, now working in 13 separate towns and all of the communities within four counties, is planning to undertake development projects on an area-wide basis.

Director Richard W. Poston told the new advisory board at a weekend meeting that concerted attacks would be launched on problems common to many sections of the state's 31 southern counties.

The board includes bankers, industrialists, attorneys, businessmen, and public officials. Twenty of the 28 board members selected braved adverse weather conditions to attend an organizational session Friday afternoon and evening.

Poston told the group that southern Illinois is a closely-knit region where communities have strong common bonds by virtue of history, culture, and economic interdependence. The area can achieve real progress if it strives for unity and coordinated action.

Flora Mayor Norman Bryden, a contractor, was elected chairman of the advisory group. Other officers are Ed Leber, manager of the Staunton plant of Forest City Manufacturing Co., vice chairman; Eugene Hayes, East St. Louis industrialist, secretary, and Byron Connell, Pulaski County state's attorney, treasurer.

Committees were formed on economic development, community relations, regional planning, technical assistance, and regional assistance. The respective chairmen are: Jacob Bleichen, president of the Rosiclare Lead and Fluorspar Mining Co.; Ben Fishel, Cairo auto dealer; Alfred A. Geiger, head of an East St. Louis printing company; Ed Hon, cashier of the Galatin County State Bank at Ridgeway, and Robert Morgan, Texas Co. representative, West Frankfort.

The board will meet on the University campus the last Friday of each month.

In an address before the new advisors, Poston traced the evolution of his department from 1953 when it was a one-man operation until today when it has a staff of 16 consultants, including specialists in city planning, housing, industrial expansion, community organization and education. In the interim, the department has aided development programs or special projects in 40 towns and cities.

Board members, in addition to those named, are listed by home towns:

Carlyle: Eldon Hazlet, attorney, and George Terry, union official. Cobden: J. H. Wilkins, auto dealer, and Ralph W. Griffith, farmer.

Oil Operation Placed on Pump; Two Await Tests

The oil well drilling operations report for Saline county reveals that the W. H. Somers No. 1, NEc NW NE, 29-8s-5e (Brushy), has been placed on pump to test the Aux Vases at 2912-23.

Perforated with 64 holes at 2912-20, it swabbed 80 barrels of fluid (20 per cent water) naturally per day.

Slagter's Cecil Simpson No. 1, NEc SW NW, 30-8s-6e (Raleigh) awaited cable tools to test the Aux Vases. Slagter's Stanley Wilson No. 1, SWc SE NW, 30-8s-6e, was cleaned out to test the Aux Vases.

Dry and abandoned were: R and K Petroleum's McConnell-Simpson No. 1, NEc SE NE, 29-8s-6e; and T. W. George's Frank A. Wooten No. 1, NWc NW SE, 5-9s-6e (Harrisburg).

Harrisburg Nat'l Bank Authorized Agent for FHA

The Harrisburg National bank has been approved as an authorized agent of the Federal Housing Administration for Saline county.

This announcement was made today by G. O. Davenport, president of the bank. As an authorized agent, the bank is now permitted to make FHA insured home mortgage loans without prior approval of the FHA office. Under this arrangement, all processing will be done locally using the services of qualified local appraisers and inspectors.

Mr. Davenport stated that before the bank could be appointed as authorized agent, it was necessary to be certified by the FHA office in Washington as an approved mortgagee.

"The value in being made an authorized agent is that we can offer so much faster service on FHA loans for our customers," Mr. Davenport said. "The Authorized Agent arrangement has only recently been made available under FHA's Certified Agency Program."

The CAP, as the program is familiarly known, applies only to cities of 15,000 and less located at least thirty miles from an FHA office. It is presently being conducted in only seven areas of the United States but already in those places where it is being used, buyers and sellers are finding that processing of applications is much faster.

Mr. Davenport further stated that generally a commitment can be issued in from two to six days from date of application. "Builders and realtors have been pleased to find construction requirements and appraisals are more realistic because local conditions are taken into consideration," he commented.

Sen. Humphrey Says U. S. Must Break Up Disarmament Package

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today the United States must break up its nine-point disarmament package proposal "if we are ever to reach a real and genuine first step agreement with the Soviet Union."

The Minnesota Democrat, chairman of the Senate disarmament subcommittee, said a policy which is predicated on the willingness of the Soviet Union to turn overnight from a totalitarian dictatorship to a peace-loving, cooperating, submissive nation willing to acquiesce in our demands, is doomed to defeat and ridicule.

Humphrey said the administration's "first step" proposal, stressing aerial and ground inspection and suspension of nuclear weapons tests and production, is too broad for Russia to be expected to accept at one time.

The Minnesota Democrat outlined his views in a 35-page speech prepared for Senate delivery.

"Do we really expect the Soviet Union to open up its country to the extent of foreign inspectors in all atomic energy plants, all

Authorities at Paducah to Hold Inquest

No Leads On Gunman Vanishing After Holding Trooper

PADUCAH, Ky. — Authorities scheduled an inquest today for a young woman sightseer who was shot and killed by mistake at a police roadblock set up to trap a fugitive gunman.

The gunman, Carl Burton, 24, has vanished. He is one of two who kidnapped a Missouri state trooper Saturday and held him hostage for more than 28 hours.

The women, Miss Jewell English, 24, was killed Monday when a car driven by her brother, Claude, stopped at a roadblock where Missouri state trooper Vernon Hopkins was talking with Forrest McAlester, a Fulton, Ky., insurance agent. They had just been alerted that an unidentified car that might contain Burton was heading for them.

The English car paused only momentarily. When it started up Hopkins fired a shotgun at it and McAlester fired a rifle he had grabbed from a police car. A mortuary director said Miss English received 24 wounds in the back from small pellets or fragments of metal.

Missouri state police requested an autopsy to determine whether these were shotgun pellets or fragments of a rifle bullet.

McAlester told authorities Hopkins had ordered him to shoot. The trooper denied this.

Paducah Assistant Police Chief Paul Holland said he has no definite leads on Burton since the gunman fled into a bottomland area near Melber, Ky., about 12 miles west of here.

"We believe he is still in this area," Holland said.

Burton fled from a farmhouse Sunday as authorities closed in. His companion, ex-convict Harold W. Davis, 33, then shot himself in an apparent suicide attempt. This enabled Missouri trooper William Little, 31, whom they had captured Saturday, to escape unharmed.

Little was taken prisoner when the desperados got the drop on him and the sheriff at Van Buren, Mo., as the officers searched their car. Little later offered himself as a hostage in place of the wife of a Van Buren filling station operator whose place the gunmen held up.

Your Income Tax

Pensions and Annuities

H. J. White, Director of the Internal Revenue Service for this district, today explained the Federal income tax rules which apply to pension and annuity payments received by individuals during 1957.

Pension and annuity payments fall into one of three categories for Federal income tax purposes: nontaxable, fully taxable, or partly taxable.

Pensions which are entirely tax-free and which should not be reported at all on your tax return include Social Security payments, Railroad Retirement Act pensions, pensions to veterans and family benefits and disability retirement pay of military personnel, if returned on disability resulting from active service.

On the other hand, payments received by a retired employee from a pension plan provided by his employer, without cost to the employee, are fully taxable.

If you purchased an annuity contract, if you retired under a plan financed jointly by you and your employer, or if you were taxed on the contributions of your employer under a retirement plan financed by him, part of the payments received by you will be taxed and the balance will be tax-free.

If you contributed to the pension fund, or if you were taxed on your employer's contributions to the fund and you will receive the amount you contributed or were taxed on within three years after retirement, the rule is simple: you report nothing as income until you recover your contribution; after that, all amounts received are fully taxable. Incidentally, this special rule usually applies to persons retiring under the United States Civil Service Retirement Plan.

In all other cases, a part of each annuity or pension payment is tax-free and the balance is taxable. The computation of the taxable portion is based on a formula designed to enable the taxpayer to recover his cost tax-free. An annual exclusion ratio is determined by dividing your total investment in the annuity contract (or your total contributions to a retirement fund) by the total you may expect to receive. This exclusion ratio is then applied to the amount received during the year. These two examples will illustrate the rule:

Assume you paid $7,500 for an annuity contract which will pay you $1,000 per year for ten years, starting in 1957. Your investment of $7,500 divided by your total expected return of $10,000 (10 x $1,000) equals 75 percent. The $1,000 received in 1957 multiplied by 75 percent equals $750. The $750 is considered a return of your investment and is excluded from taxable income. The balance of $250 is fully taxable, and the same holds true for each succeeding year's payment.

Now assume that you retired from your job at age 65 and will receive an annual pension of $2,000 for the rest of your life. The multiple from the official Internal Revenue

Million Motorists Still Need to Get '58 License Plates

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—More than a million motor vehicle owners still have to get their 1958 license plates within the next two weeks, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter reported today.

Carpenter said a total of 2,230,000 registrations were made at the close of business Saturday. But, he said, more than a million still have to be made in the brief two weeks remaining before the Feb. 15 deadline for displaying 1958 plates.

Motorists who now apply for license plates by mail may not receive them by Feb. 15, Carpenter warned.

The plates may be purchased directly at the secretary of state's offices at Springfield and Chicago.

4th Annual State Park Photo Contest April 1 to August 1

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Governor William G. Stratton today announced that his fourth annual State Park Photo contest will again begin April 1 and close August 1.

For the fourth consecutive year, amateur photographers will have opportunity to make their spring and summer family outings at Illinois parks and memorials pay for themselves.

The governor said that $500 will be awarded to winners. The prizes will be presented to the winning amateur photographers by the governor at the Illinois State Fair, August 8-17.

Special photographic equipment is not necessary to be a winner. Judging is based on quality and composition of prints submitted. All entries will be judged by members of the Illinois Press Photographers' Association.

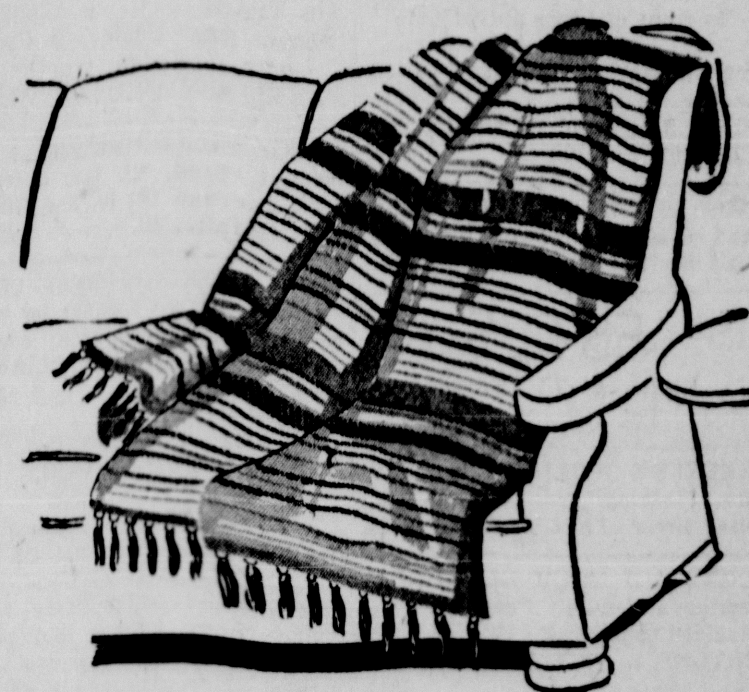

The governor said that entry blanks are being printed and will be available within several weeks at any of the 73 Illinois state parks and memorials. When available, they can also be obtained by writing to the Illinois Departmental Information Service, Room 406, State House, Springfield.

In last year's contest, several hundred entries were submitted by residents of Illinois and neighboring states. Reginald Broderick of Springfield received first prize in 1957 with his photo of a New Salem scene.

Safecracking at Herrin Nets $2,000
HERRIN, Ill. (AP) — Police said today they have "little to work on" in the investigation of a weekend safecracking that netted $2,000 at the Knights of Columbus lodge.

Police Chief Roy Cole said the safecrackers entered the building by knocking a hole in the roof and then used a chisel to open the safe. They left the building the same way they entered.

The burglars left a chisel in front of the opened safe. No fingerprints were found.

The Last Sundown

by L. P. HOLMES

THE STORY: At the home of Milo Biglow, Ward Sebastian points out that the uprising of the Modocs is due to white men's greed and lack of understanding rather than viciousness on the part of the Indians. Anne, Biglow's daughter, finally breaks up the argument.

X
Anne led him back into the parlor. She faced him at the hearth and dug into him with some asperity.
"Did you have to act so?"
"How?"
"You know what I mean, arguing the way you did. And when Harley told you of going into the office with Dad, you—well—!"
"I congratulated him, didn't I?"
"Yes—sarcastically. Was that necessary?"

In Milo Biglow's study the drone of Harley Ritter's reading had begun again. Sebastian crossed over and closed the door, his smile widening as he came back to the hearth.

"Will that have old Harley jumping? He'll be imagining all sorts of things, now. And—where were we, anyhow. Oh, yes, why did I spur Ritter, even gently? Well, quite frankly, Anne, I don't like

Lowell Langford Announces Sheriff Candidacy

Lowell L. Langford

Lowell L. Langford today announced his candidacy for Sheriff of Saline County in the Democratic primary election.

Mr. Langford, 36 years of age, is a life-long resident of Saline county. He was born in Independence township near Rudement, attended grade schools in Saline county, is a graduate of the Harrisburg township high school and at present resides west of Harrisburg on Route 13.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Langford and his mother is the former Miss Bessie Ewell.

Mr. Langford is married to the former Miss Evelyn Rose Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weaver, and they have a two-year-old daughter, Patricia Ann.

During his high school days Lowell was active in athletics playing football and basketball.

He is a veteran of World War II, serving with the U. S. Navy for more than two years, seeing action in both the South Pacific and European theaters of war.

Mr. Langford, presently employed at the Lloyd L. Parker Furniture store, has a background in law enforcement having served on the Harrisburg city police force for three and a half years.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"I wanted to stay at a motel, but you know how congenial Bob is — always enjoys surprising old friends we haven't seen for years!"

Sebastian, tied down in town to some job or business that he hated, would be someone else entirely. You wouldn't care for him and he wouldn't care for himself.

He got into his coat stiffly, favoring his left arm, line of action at the drag of his coat across the bandaged wound.

Anne did not notice. She was staring straight ahead, seeing things of which she was fearful; wanting life, yet afraid of it.

"Good night, Anne," he said. The rain was there, waiting for him, wet and chill and clean. The wind pushed it at him, pushed it past him. A gust of it reached Anne Biglow, challenging her. She gasped and backed away from the challenge, closing the door quickly.

ASC Officials Expect Nearly 20,000 Bids

SPRINGFIELD — Federal agriculture officials today reported they now expect nearly 20,000 bids from Illinois farmers who hope to put their whole farms in the soil bank.

The Illinois Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee office here began opening the bids Saturday and transferring farm-by-farm data to permanent records. Some 12,000 bids had been received by late Saturday.

The ASC office reported "at least 2,000" additional bids were received today and more are expected through mid-week as the county ASC offices process each farmer's offer, provide covering papers and forward the sealed bids to Springfield.

Willard Upp, the state ASC committee's administrative officer, said reports from county ASC offices and field men now indicate the total number of bids will run from 15,000 to 20,000. The ASC office here last week expected no more than 15,000 bids and considered that figure surprisingly high.

Upp indicated that large numbers of the bids probably would be too high for serious consideration. "Undoubtedly a high percentage of them are going to be too high if we get that many bids," he said.

Agriculture Department officials were amazed at the results of their offer to permit entire farms to be placed in the soil bank for either five or 10 years. The experimental program was set up in Illinois and three other states—

Maine, Nebraska and Tennessee—in an effort to boost interest in the soil bank's conservation reserve program.

The farmers entered bids offering to accept a given annual payment per acre for taking their entire farms out of production. The payment per acre is the subject of the bidding.

Deadline for filing bids at county ASC offices was Friday.

West Germany Putting Scientific Ability Into Atoms-for-Peace

FRANKFURT, Germany (UP)—West Germany has thrown its scientific ability and prosperity into an all-out atoms-for-peace program.

Banned from all atomic research until 1955, Germany in two years has put two atomic reactors into operation, founded societies for atomic development, and is rapidly catching up on other nations engaged in similar programs for a decade longer.

Laws controlling the use of the atom are in the legislative mill.

Grocer Shot in Battle with Six Gunmen; 1 Dead

CHICAGO (UP)—A grocer fought a gun battle with six would-be hold-up men, killing one of the bandits and wounding two others before falling with a bullet wound to his head.

Peter Capilupo, 41, operator of Pete's grocery, was reported in fair condition today at the University of Illinois Hospital with a wound in the right side of his back.

The gunmen entered the store Monday night while Capilupo's mother, Sylvia, 70, was at the counter and Capilupo was talking on the telephone at the rear.

One of the robbers, John Stevenson, 19, drew a .32 caliber automatic and demanded money. Two of the other bandits also displayed guns.

Without hesitation, Capilupo whirled around, pulled a .38 caliber revolver from his pocket and advanced on the gunmen.

Stevenson fired once, hitting the grocer in the side. That was the last bullet fired by the robbers. Capilupo shot six times in rapid fire, emptying his gun.

One shot blasted Stevenson in the chest and he dropped dead. Another bullet struck Robert Jeffrey, 19, below the heart and he crumpled to the floor of the store. A third hit James L. Waddy, 18, as he and his remaining companions dashed from the building.

Capilupo, a father of five children, said he recognized the gunmen as "neighborhood fellows." Police said the gang had staged more than 20 robberies of small businesses in recent months.

instill in them the desire to help in changing to a positive attitude would be through these organizations. Think what changes could be brought about by an inspirational speaker who was able to reach all these women.

When a woman learns of a good thing or idea she doesn't keep it to herself. She shares it with others. So what better material could you want to work with?

Give a woman self-confidence and she will inspire her family with it. Families make up a neighborhood and neighborhoods make the community. In fact, it all boils down to this: Before we have a better community we must have better people. We must have confidence in ourselves before others will believe in us.

There is no better place to start than in the home. So let's get the women started working on this positive attitude. If we all work hard and dream big and think big we can have that better community and a brighter tomorrow.

We could make as our theme song that song so popular a few years back: "Accentuate the Positive, Eliminate the Negative. Latch on to the Affirmative. Don't Mess with 'Mr. In Between.'"

Take Steps to Plan Area Storm Warning System

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Steps were taken Monday night to organize a storm warning system for southern Illinois where 14 lives were lost in tornadoes last Dec. 18.

Some 60 officials representing radio, television, newspapers, civil defense, cities, utilities, state police and schools attended the meeting at Southern Illinois University here.

A. Frank Bridges, Carbondale, civil defense chief for southern Illinois, said the main objective of a storm warning system would be to give people the "15 to 30 minutes of advance warning they need that a tornado is approaching."

Bridges named committees on communications, civil defense coordination and education and information to study various problems of a storm warning system. The new storm warning bulletin of the state office of civil defense was distributed to the officials.

Army Planning TV Satellite

WASHINGTON (UP)—America's Explorer satellite has radioed from the unknown a hopeful indication man can survive a flight through space.

Scientists at the California Institute of Technology Jet Propulsion Laboratory said preliminary information from the first U. S. satellite indicates cosmic rays and particles of meteors will not be a hazard to space travelers.

At the same time, Army experts were reported seeking permission to launch a 300-pound "seeing-eye" television satellite and another one weighing 700 pounds that could be the forerunner of a permanent space station revolving around the globe.

Dr. William H. Pickering, director of JPL, said the speed of Explorer cruising through space at 18,000 miles an hour in an orbit ranging from 230 to 1,600 miles away from earth could keep it aloft "perhaps 12 years." However, its two radio transmitters are expected to go silent in about two months.

Other scientists gave estimates ranging from 6 to 10 years of life for Explorer. Russia's Sputnik II stayed up three months. Sputnik I passed the three-month mark Monday.

Defense Department sources said neither Army proposal for 300 and 700 pound satellites had been approved. The Air Force already has contracted with Lockheed Aircraft for construction of a TV reconnaissance satellite.

Supreme Court to Rule On Pipeline Rate Increases

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Justice Department said today it hopes the Supreme Court will expedite a ruling on the legality of gas pipeline rate increases totaling many billions of dollars.

The court is reviewing the case which has brought chaos to rate-making by the Federal Power Commission.

Under normal procedures, arguments would not be heard until the next term of court. But the department feels an early decision is of the utmost importance to both the industry and the commission.

Pipelines may have to refund large sums to their customers if the commission's rate making method is thrown out.

Recover Body of Coal Miner; Second Seriously Hurt

FARMERSVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Rescue workers early today recovered the body of a coal mine worker buried under tons of dirt and rock at the Crown Mine here.

The miner Kenneth Rose, of Springfield, was killed when supports gave way as he and a co-worker, John Hannan, 50, of Virden, were timbering the mine Monday night.

Hannan was seriously hurt and was taken to St. John's hospital at Springfield.

Rose's body was found shortly after midnight by rescue workers who had to dig into the mine for more than two hours.

Mine officials said about 180 men were working at the Crown Mine, less than a mile from Farmersville, when the roof fell. All but Rose had been accounted for, they said.

FCC Chief Claims He Paid Back Money Accepted from TV Station

WASHINGTON (UP)—Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission testified today that after Congress began investigating the commission he returned $165.12 he had accepted from an Oklahoma City television station.

Doerfer insisted that the payment, for travel expenses he never had, was all "a mistake." He received it in 1954 and returned it two weeks ago.

He told a House Commerce subcommittee he had been under the impression until recently that the payment was for travel expenses for himself and his wife to Oklahoma City, where he dedicated a TV tower. Actually, the television station already had paid for the airline tickets.

Subcommittee Counsel Bernard W. Schwartz said that the $175.12 check, which Doerfer had cashed, constituted a "tripling up" of "expenses" for a 1954 trip from Washington to Oklahoma City, Spokane and back to Washington.

Schwartz said Doerfer had collected expense money from the government, the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, and the Oklahoma City station, KWTU, for the trip.

Doerfer denied that. He said he had done nothing for which he should have a "guilty conscience."

KWTU paid traveling expenses for Doerfer and his wife from

Confessed Killer, Diminutive Girl Friend Plead Innocent to Murder

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP)—Charles Starkweather, 19, confessed mass killer of 11 persons, and his 14-year-old girl friend Caril Fugate, have pleaded innocent to murder charges.

Starkweather, a swaggering, boastful outlaw when arrested in Douglas, Wyo., last week, barely mumbled his innocent plea when arraigned Monday.

Caril later pleaded innocent to identical charges. The diminutive teen-ager, standing with her father's arms about her, spoke in a soft, wavering voice.

They were charged with first degree murder with premeditated malice and first degree murder in the perpetration of a robbery in the gun slaying of Robert Jensen, 17, of nearby Bennet, Neb. The maximum penalty upon conviction would be death in the electric chair.

Jensen and his high school sweetheart, Carol King, 16, were shot to death a week ago Monday and their bodies dumped into an abandoned storm cellar. Starkweather and Caril also have been charged with the murder of Miss King.

The red-haired Starkweather, who appeared without an attorney, will next be brought to court March 1 for a preliminary hearing. The District Court is expected to appoint a defense lawyer for him by then.

Preliminary hearing for Caril was set for March 8.

Starkweather pleaded innocent despite a 213-page confession to his many murders. The plea apparently was advised by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Starkweather, as a means of protecting his rights.

Shortly after the plea County Atty. Elmer Scheele revealed portions of the confession Starkweather dictated and signed at the Nebraska Penitentiary.

In it, Starkweather said Caril helped him march Jensen and Miss King to their deaths. Caril has contended she was Starkweather's unwilling hostage and was marked for murder by the killer herself.

Ford Official Hits Reuther Plan

WASHINGTON (UP)—A Ford executive said today auto union proposals for profit-sharing and price-cutting would kill off two car firms and leave two others "limping low."

The charge was made by Theodore O. Yntema, Ford Motor Co. vice president, in testimony prepared for delivery to the Senate Anti-Monopoly subcommittee.

Yntema attacked proposals by Walter P. Reuther, president of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers.

He labelled Reuther's call for a $100 cut in car prices "ridiculous" and an effort to divert attention from what he called the union's "inflationary" wage demands.

Yntema also blasted Reuther's profit-sharing plan. He said it would be difficult to "contrive a plan more damaging to the preservation of competition in a free society or to the integrity of our currency."

AFL-CIO President George Meany Monday night expressed doubts of the wisdom of profit-sharing plans. He suggested unions go slow in adopting proposals such as Reuther's, slated for discussion in auto industry wage talk this spring.

Best Seller Authoress to Get Quick Divorce in Mexico to Wed Her Agent

NEW YORK (UP)—Grace Metalious, best-selling author and mother of three children, announced Monday night she plans to divorce her present husband in Mexico to marry a former disc jockey.

The plump, 33-year-old author of the spicy novel "Peyton Place" told a news conference she was ending her 16-year marriage to school teacher George Metalious by the "fast divorce" method in Mexico City.

Mrs. Metalious said she flew to New York from Gilmanston, N. H., Saturday on a spur-of-the-moment decision to patch up a "lover's quarrel" with her future husband T. J. Martin.

Martin, who now manages Mrs. Metalious' affairs, said he would accompany his future bride to Mexico and remain with her there "even though it might take six weeks for her divorce."

"I was married the first time at 17," the authoress said. "It was far too young. It was much, much, much too young."

Mrs. Metalious said her husband was agreeable to the divorce and would take care of the children until she returns to Gilmanston to live in the house she bought and remodeled with the profits from her novel about life and love in a small New England town.

She said her second novel, about a New England school teacher, is due for publication in the fall.

News from the State Capitol

The real solution to the problems of youth today lies at the community level, Governor William G. Stretton said in a talk at the annual meeting of the Wheaton YMCA.

Governor Stretton outlined the state's role in the prevention, punishment and correction of juvenile crime, but stressed the need for greater community efforts.

Schools and churches are not enough. Youth must have direction in leisure hours, Governor Stratten said.

"There must be a special community effort as represented by the work of the YMCA and there must be a giving of time and resources. There must be example."

"Such work is good for you personally," the governor continued. "There is satisfaction, a personal satisfaction, in helping in this work that can be derived in no other fashion. It is good for your spirit."

New regulations of the Illinois egg law do not require farmers to be licensed before selling eggs, according to the Illinois agriculture department.

Director Stillman J. Stanard said there has been much confusion on this point because producers don't fully understand the law. Farmers selling eggs produced on their farms are exempt from candling, labeling and licensing.

In some cases, however, retailers don't want to assume the responsibility of candling and grading and therefore prefer to do business only with licensed dealers. Thus, to protect his market, the farmer may desire to become licensed. Stanard cautioned farmers, however, to be sure their facilities are adequate for them to operate as a licensee, which includes the maximum 60 degree provision after candling.

Fish are not born with scales. A baby fish is born naked of scales, later sprouting them from under the skin.

TO THE VOTERS OF SALINE COUNTY

I Would Like to Make This Announcement:

I have lived in Saline County practically all of my life and have been a coal miner most of that time. I would like to say in answer to some questions, that I am not drawing a miner's pension.

I was born and reared a REPUBLICAN and have never asked the party for any favors. I have been told we need young men in offices and in answer to that, if nominated and elected I do not intend to fight my way through. I have a different method of enforcing the law.

I have worked but very little since April, 1954, at which time I was laid off at Peabody 43, so you can see my finances are limited.

I am not obligated to any one person or any group of persons. I am going to try and visit every home in the county and ask for the nomination. If successful I will be very grateful, but if defeated I'll still be a good REPUBLICAN.

In regard to my family history, I am the son of the late Ben and Margaret DeVar of Ledford. In 1913 I married Iva Irvin of Walnut Grove community. Three children were born, two dying in infancy. My only son, Harvey, with Charles Wright, owns and operates Jackson's Drug Store. In 1939 he was married to Ruth Allen, daughter of Aaron and Mary Allen of Galatia, and they have one son, Billy. Harvey's mother passed away in 1943 while he was in the South Pacific in World War II.

In November 1948, I married Bernice Owens, of Galatia, widow of Frank Owens, and their only son, Lt. Harold F. Owens, lost his life in action December 6, 1944.

In closing I would like to copy from a statement made by President Eisenhower in his last campaign: "I would like to see every voter in Saline County go to the polls on April 8, 1958, and if you cannot vote for me, vote for someone."

Ohio State Whips Illinois, 78-70, for Fifth Loop Win; Minnesota Edges Indiana

CHICAGO — Ohio State moved into the second spot in the Big Ten conference race behind Michigan State today while Indiana missed a chance to tie for the league lead when it was upset by last place Minnesota.

The Buckeyes posted their sixth straight home victory and fifth conference win by whipping Illinois 78-72, while Indiana missed a chance for a first place tie by losing to Minnesota, 69-66, and fell into a sixth place tie with idle Wisconsin.

Purdue moved up to a fourth place tie with Iowa by beating Northwestern, 84-72, while Indiana missed a chance for a first place tie by losing to Minnesota, 69-66, and fell into a sixth place tie with idle Wisconsin.

Buckeyes Never Behind
The Buckeyes led all the way except for two brief periods when the smaller Illinois team tied it shortly before the intermission. But the Buckeyes ripped to 10 straight points at the start of the second half and were never in danger after that.

George Kline paced Minnesota with 20 points, including the important basket which put the Go-pheers ahead for good less than three minutes from the end. The lead changed hands 15 times before Minnesota moved into command. But the Hoosiers' Pete Obremsky netted 25 points to take individual honors.

Indiana's giant center, Archie Dees, remained atop the conference scoring race with a 26.6 average despite a poor night against sophomore Gopher center Ron Johnson, who held Dees to 15 points.

Purdue featured a balanced attack as it came from behind to whip Northwestern and move into a fourth place tie with idle Iowa, both with 43 conference marks.

The loss gave the Wildcats a 3-5 mark in eighth place ahead of Illinois and Minnesota.

The Wildcats stayed in the game until the final five minutes when they could not buy a basket and started fouling. The Wildcats took a first half lead after the score had changed hands six times and went off at intermission with a 37-29 bulge.

But Purdue connected on five straight baskets as the second half started to slice the Wildcats' lead and the action sea-sawed until the Boilermakers took command five minutes from the end.

Ohl Misses Chance
Don Ohl of Illinois missed a chance to overtake Dees in the close scoring race when he bagged only 17 points against Ohio State to stay in second place with a 23.5 average.

George Kline of Minnesota topped his conference average to 20 as he connected for that many points against Indiana. Purdue's Willie Merriweather advanced one notch to sixth place while Phil Warren of Northwestern dropped from sixth to eighth and teammate Joe Ruklick fell to 10th.

Saturday night finds Illinois at Michigan, Michigan State at Indiana and Minnesota at Wisconsin.

Cardinals Sign 38th Player

By United Press
The St. Louis Cardinals, perennial leaders in the "salary league," now have 38 players under contract for the 1958 campaign.

Outfielder Wally Moon came to terms Monday night, leaving only catcher Hobie Landrith unsigned. The Boston Red Sox, meanwhile, received signed contracts from outfielder Jim Piersall and south-paw pitcher Frank Baumann. Piersall led the Sox in runs scored (103) and stolen bases (14) last season, while Baumann, a former bonus baby, was recalled from Oklahoma City late in the season.

The Yankees signed their 12th player, infielder Jerry Lumpe, while Joe DeMaestri, the American League's top defensive shortstop last year, came to terms with the Kansas City Athletics.

Kansas State Tops Jayhawks And Wilt, 79-75

By United Press

Kansas State laid claim to the No. 1 ranking in college basketball today on the strength of its "We told you so" victory over Wilt Chamberlain and Kansas.

With a capacity crowd of 17,500 on hand at Lawrence, Kan., the Wildcats reversed an early loss to Kansas, when they whipped the Jayhawks, 79-75, Monday night in double overtime. Kansas State claimed after that early loss—by 79-65 in the finale of the Big Eight tournament on Dec. 30—that illness and bad breaks had cost it the victory.

And last night the Wildcats made their argument sound like something more than sour grapes with a sparkling triumph that gave them a 5-0 slate in Big Eight conference play and left Kansas with a 2-2 mark. It was Kansas' third loss of the season—but the first suffered with Chamberlain in the lineup. Chamberlain, who was sick when Kansas lost earlier games to Oklahoma State and Oklahoma, was held to 25 points in a splendid double-teaming job by 6-9 Jack Part and 6-8 Bob Boozer and dropped to third place in the national scoring race. His average now is 31.85 points a game compared with Elgin Baylor's 32.44 average and Oscar Robertson's 32.35 mark.

Safety Council Reports Drop in Highway Deaths

CHICAGO (U) — The National Safety Council announced today that 1957 traffic deaths dropped more than 1,100 from 1956, and motorists had the lowest death-per-mile rate on record.

This in spite of a four per cent rise in motor vehicle travel.

Deaths for the year, the council said, were 38,500 — 3 per cent below 39,628 in 1956. The mileage death rate — fatalities per 100,000,000 vehicle miles was 5.9, compared with the previous low of 6.3 in 1956 and 1954.

"Much of the credit must go to governors, mayors and traffic enforcement agencies throughout the country," said the council, but "the drivers and pedestrians deserve a pat on the back, too. They, of course, made the improvement possible."

The council said: Every 1957 model except August showed a drop or no change in traffic deaths from the same 1956 month.

The numerical drop of more than 1,100 was the second largest for any year since the end of World War II in 1945, and the only large

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N.Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

What's Wrong With America? Lack of Leadership: Rayburn

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (U) — Speaker Sam Rayburn doesn't beat around the bush. When you ask him what's wrong with America, he has a quick, three-word answer: "Lack of leadership."

That may sound like a Democrat's political jibe at a Republican president. But "Mr. Sam," although a Democratic leader, made his reply cover both parties and beyond government to business and other areas.

He had been asked, as a statesman, to answer a question which the United Press put to six prominent Americans representing government, the military, business, labor, science and the church. The question was:

"What troubles you most as you look at America today?"

The man who has served as speaker longer than anyone else in history emphasized that his indictment of timid leadership was not aimed solely at the White House.

People Underestimated "I think," he said, peering over his pince-nez glasses, "that the entire political leadership of the country—Congress and the administration, Democrats and Republicans—is guilty of underestimating the American people."

Rayburn said he is convinced that Americans "want to know the cold, hard facts, of where we stand in the arms race with Russia."

"I believe the people are ready to work hard, to have stern demands made on them," he said. "They are ready to make whatever contributions are necessary to keep this country strong and free."

But Rayburn said political leaders—and again he included Congress along with the administration—have been reluctant to ask Americans to make heroic contributions.

"There has been a tendency to shield the people from bad news, to withhold essential facts that they ought to know. There has been a hesitancy to impose burdens on them—even necessary burdens."

Dignity Stands Out Everyone has seen pictures of Rayburn. But the bald head and the scowl which are so prominent in his photographs are not what you notice when you talk to him. It is dignity that impresses you—a dignity that flows from the man rather than the trappings of his office, and which remains unruffled even when Mr. Sam reaches back to his boyhood in Latham, Tex., for an earthy anecdote to illustrate his point.

Rayburn, 76, has served in Congress for 45 of those years. He jokes about being "an old man." But he doesn't talk like one.

He opened the interview by saying he wanted to "get on the record one thing that I'm not worried about."

"I'm not worried about our young people. It makes me tired to hear all this talk about the young generation going to hell in a hack. Every spring I talk to hundreds of these high school seniors on their visits to the Capitol, and I tell you they are a lot smarter than I was at their age."

The interview was held in the speaker's office, just off the House floor in the Capitol.

Mr. Speaker, do you believe the American people are frightened by Russia's successes in missiles and space vehicles?

"No. I don't think they are scared. But they are very troubled and humiliated to find out that we are behind the Russians in some things. I think they'd like to get to work remedying the situation if somebody would lay down a program for them to work at."

While Rayburn carefully refrained from direct criticism of President Eisenhower, it was clear throughout the interview that he does not regard the administration's program as anything like an adequate national response to the present emergency.

Time and again, he spoke of the need for bolder leadership in government "starting at the top." And he said this need for bolder leadership extends beyond government—into business and every other segment of our society.

Bomb Scare

MERIDEN, Conn. — (U) — As the manager phoned police to report a bomb threat, the lights in the theater went out and the film stopped. Lightning had struck a utility line and cut off the power. The bomb threat turned out to be a hoax.
